The 14 Sexiest Restaurants in San Diego for a Romantic Date Night

Bleu Boheme

Bleu Boheme

Kensington

Warm, candlelit, and unassuming, Bleu Boheme fosters intimacy with shareables like moules-frites prepared seven different ways, charcuterie and fromage boards, and nearly 30 wines served au pichet. Homey classics dominate the entree list, elevated even further by carefully crafted sides; Coquille St. Jacques, luxurious on its own, includes large, dry-packed sea scallops flanked by saffron lobster risotto, linguisa, asparagus, fennel, and basil pistou sauce, while Confit de Canard perches a glazed Hudson Valley Muscovy duck leg confit on creamy goat cheese polenta, tangy mustard greens, olive relish, and green sauce.
